

Public Law 100-555
100th Congress

An Act

Oct. 28, 1988
[S. 1985]

To improve the protection and management of archeological resources on Federal land.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Archeological Resources Protection Act of 1979 (Public Law 96-95; 16 U.S.C. 470ii) be amended to add the following new section after section 13:

16 USC 470mm.

“SEC. 14. The Secretaries of the Interior, Agriculture, and Defense and the Chairman of the Board of the Tennessee Valley Authority shall—

“(a) develop plans for surveying lands under their control to determine the nature and extent of archeological resources on those lands;

“(b) prepare a schedule for surveying lands that are likely to contain the most scientifically valuable archeological resources; and

“(c) develop documents for the reporting of suspected violations of this Act and establish when and how those documents are to be completed by officers, employees, and agents of their respective agencies.”.

Approved October 28, 1988.
